Dear Secretary Dortch:

The undersigned, on behalf of the Schools, Health and Libraries Broadband Coalition (“SHLB Coalition”) recently engaged in the following phone conversations with the FCC staff:

- Angie Kronenberg, legal assistant to Commissioner Clyburn, on October 4 and October 14, 2011, (with Alan Fishel on behalf of Internet2)
- Zac Katz, legal advisor to Chairman Genachowski, on October 17 (with Alan Fishel on behalf of Internet2);
- Margaret McCarthy, legal advisor to Commissioner Copps, on October 5; and
- Christine Kurth, legal advisor to Commissioner McDowell, on October 11.

In each case, the discussion focused on how to ensure that recipients of funding from the Universal Service Fund (USF) should be required to provide high-capacity broadband to community anchor institutions in rural areas. We discussed how to enforce such a requirement, such as through reporting requirements and good faith obligations to determine the broadband needs of anchor institutions in the service territory.

Sincerely,
